

Sax of Sax

Saxophone Workshops

Come and find out what you and your saxophone are capable of.

Did you know that you are playing one of the last instruments to have been invented ?

Did you know that the saxophone is one of the most versatile musical instruments around ?

Do you want to learn more about the instrument of your choice ?

IF SO

There are workshops in your area over the Summer holidays that will show you what is possible.

Each day is made up of 2 X 2 hour sessions plus a 1 hour lunchbreak.

Registration from 9.30 am
First session starts at 10.00 am
Lunch 12.00 noon
Second session starts at 1.00 pm
Workshop finishes at 3.00pm

Cost of workshop is £30.00 per person

Biog : Dave Plummer

Dave is an experienced musician with 17 years in a British Army band serving all over the world.

He has been teaching Saxophone and Clarinet for the last 6 years in schools across the Midlands and has a thriving home studio of students.

He also plays in several Big Bands and various Saxophone Ensembles in the Leicester area.

Biog : Chris de Verteuil

Chris is a multi instrumentalist and has been making music and playing in bands since the age of twelve starting with the clarinet and piano and then picking up the saxophone a few years later. Now a seasoned composer/arranger in a variety of musical genres for theatre and film including saxophone ensembles and Big Band, he also teaches singing and instrumental ensembles with a local youth theatre group venues and dates

28 July	2010	Uppingham Town Hall
30 July	2010	South Wigston Salvation Army Hall
18 August	2010	South Wigston Salvation Army Hall
20 August	2010	Lutterworth Town Hall
25 August	2010	Victoria Hall Oakham

Suitable for ages 11 years +

Adults welcome

Minimum of 1 years playing experience required